HENRY COLLINS OF LYNN

AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

FIRST GENERATION

1. HENRY COLLINS, starchmaker, aged 29, with his wife Ann, aged 30, three children and five servants, came in the ship Abigail in June, 1635. They were certified from the parish of Stepney, England. Probably this was not their home, but the place of their last sojourn in England. The servants were evidently his workmen in the business which it would seem he had been carrying on in England.

He settled at Lynn. March 9, 1636-7, he was made "freeman," which means he became a citizen of the colony, entitled to the privilege of voting and holding office in the colony. No man could become a "freeman" at that time unless he was a church member. In 1638 eighty acres of land, upland and meadow, were assigned him. He lived on Essex Street. Lynn records show that he served as selectman. When Nahant was divided among the householders of Lynn, in 1657, he was one of seven men chosen to lay out the "lots" and see that the shares were equal. He is mentioned as one of the appraisers of at least six estates.

The will of Henry Collins cannot now be found, but it is referred to in probate records. It was dated February 10, 1686, and was probated March 31, 1687. Later an agreement was made by the sons to carry out the provisions of the will, and this agreement is on file at Salem.

Ann, the widow of Henry Collins, died September 29, 1691. Her blindness, which she mentions in the following will, explains the fact that she was unable to sign her name, but made her mark instead.

WILL OF ANN COLLINS

Lynn the 8 day of Sept^r 1690. In the name of our Lord god everlasting amen.

I Ann Collins of Lynn in the County of Essex in New England widow and the relict of Henry Collins sen^r of Lynn aforesd deceased I the said Ann being very aged and my tyme of departure out of this world most uncertaine and may be very sudden as I have cause to think by reason of some late providences of god in visiting me with some touches of his hand upon my fraile body and hath taken away my naturall sight I thought meet to improve the present tyme the lord affords me and being through mercy free from my paines and distempe's and in my perfect memory. And cleare understanding Do make my last will & testat and dispose of what estate the lord hath afforded me of w^t was left unto me by the last will of my husband above-sd deceased.

Children:

- i. Henry², b. in England about 1630.
- ii. John, b. in England about 1632.
- iii. Margery, b. in England about 1633.
2. iv. Joseph, b. about 1642.
- v. Benjamin.

When Lynn became a city in 1850, the mayor in his inaugural address mentioned Henry Collins as one of thirteen early settlers whose descendants were represented in the first city council. Later, in 1876, a list of the names of twelve of the early settlers of Lynn was prepared, and also the number of voters of each name at the time the list was made. There were twenty-three voters by the name of Collins, which was the ninth name on the list, and it was stated that that had been the relative position for fifty years. So it will be seen that there is ample field for research in the records of the Lynn Collinses, but our work lies with the Southborough and Fitzwilliam Collinses and their Lynn ancestors.

SECOND GENERATION

2. JOSEPH² COLLINS (*Henry*¹) deposed in the case of Edward Richard's estate in Lynn, March 24, 1689, giving his age as "about fourty & Seaven yeares." This would make his birth fall in the year 1642 or 1643. He was mentioned in the will of his father and was one of the brothers who made an agreement regarding the lands which their father had owned and bequeathed to them, in the year 1694.

He was a housewright, or carpenter and builder. He lived at Lynn and owned considerable land. February 20, 1721-2, he deeded land and buildings to his son Ezekiel, on condition of Ezekiel's taking care of himself and wife and paying certain sums to the other children; but March 28, 1724, they joined in a "disannulling" deed.

He married first, Sarah ———; she died February 25, 1682. He married second, October, 1684, Maria Smith. He died February 4, 1734.

Children:

- i. Dorothy³, b. Mar. 6, 1675-6.
- ii. Sarah, b. Aug. 1, 1678.
- iii. Esther, b. Jan. 2, 1679-80.
- iv. Ruth, b. Oct. 26, 1685.
- v. Mary, b. Jan. 16, 1687-8.
- vi. William, b. Jan. 14, 1689-90.
- vii. Elizabeth, b. Dec. 23, 1692.
- viii. Joseph, b. Mar. 26, 1695.
3. ix. Ezekiel, b. Feb. 17, 1697-8.
- x. Martha, b. Apr. 1, 1700.

THIRD GENERATION

3. EZEKIEL³ COLLINS (*Joseph*², *Henry*¹) was born at Lynn February 17, 1697-8. He married May 12, 1721, Rebekah Graves.

The following abstracts show all his sales of land in Lynn:

Ezekiel Collins, of Lynn, husbandman, with his wife Rebecca, sold land in Lynn to Henry Silsbee, November 4, 1724. They sold to Samuel Graves land and buildings with fruit trees, etc., adjoining his own land, May 10, 1727: and another tract of land to Crispus Graves, March 22, 1728-9. They sold to Nathaniel Collins a tract of land originally laid out to Joseph Collins, September 11, 1729. "Ezekiel Collins, of Lynn, housewright," sold 25 acres of land with buildings, "on the road to Lynn North Precinct," April 5, 1731. Then, January 3, 1731-2, he sold for 150 pounds to Samuel Hallowell of Lynn, his house, barn and seven acres of land in Lynn, "bounded westerly on the town Common."

Thus he disposed of all his holdings in his native place and prepared to remove to a point in the interior of the province. On the records of Worcester County we find a purchase deed which carries his history over from the shore to the highlands:

"Ezekiel Collins of Lynn" bought of Thomas Bellows of Southborough, housewright, for 50 pounds, about 13 acres of land in Southborough, August 25, 1733. This is the first of a number of real estate transactions, covering a period of more than twenty years, the records of which are found in Worcester County deeds. In 1745 he bought land in Westborough for 400 pounds, and in 1750 he sold land in that town to William Upham for 600 pounds and he and Rebekah signed the deed. In 1765 Ezekiel Collins, yeoman, deeds to Mark Collins, yeoman, for 200 pounds, land "with dwelling house on same where said Ezekiel and Mark now dwell," and Rebekah's signature as well as his own is affixed to the deed. Mark was probably the son of Ezekiel and was going to "carry on the place" and "look after the old people," as it is stated in the deed that "it is the design and true intent and meaning of said Ezekiel, Rebekah and Mark that the said Ezekiel and Rebekah shall have the full free and absolute liberty, privilege etc. during both and each of their natural lives."

If we are right in concluding that Mark was the son of Ezekiel and Rebekah, they had at least three children.

Children:

4. i. William⁴, date of birth unknown, but he was probably older than Mark, as he had a son born in May, 1749.
5. ii. Mark, died in Southborough Aug. 20, 1803, æ. 74, so he was born about 1729.
- iii. Meriah, b. Nov. 3, 1739; m. Apr. 23, 1760, Ebenezer Collins.

FOURTH GENERATION

4. WILLIAM⁴ COLLINS (Ezekiel³, Joseph², Henry¹) was probably born in Lynn before his parents removed to Southborough. He married Mary Nichols October 30, 1746, at Southborough. She died July 19, 1814. That he was the son of Ezekiel³ is shown conclusively by the fact that in 1748 said Ezekiel deeds "about 70 acres of land" for 500 pounds old Tenor to "my dutiful son William Collins of Southborough," and we have no trace of any other William Collins in Southborough at that time.

He died April 8, 1812. He left a will dated April 12, 1799, a part of which is given below.

He wills wife Mary household furniture, two cows, one swine, also "income and profits of one halfe my Real Estate during her natural life, to include the north part of the dwelling house to the east doore, with an equal right to up the chamber stairs in common with the occupants of the other part of the said house, also a privilege in the barn sufficient to store her hay and grain and making her Sider and keeping her cows during her natural life."

"I give and bequeath to my Son Ezekiel Collins fifty Dollars & one Cow to be paid and delivered by my Executor in Six months after my decease. Which with what I have already given him will be his full share of my estate."

His son, Mark, Junior, is willed all real estate "excepting the right of Improvement which I have given to Said Wife during her life. Also all my farming utensils and tools of mechanics."

Mark, Junior, is appointed executor. An alteration is made February 16, 1808, because of the death of William's son Ezekiel, who died in Fitzwilliam, N. H., February 8 of that year. The $50 and the cows are to be given to the widow.

April 1, 1778, more than twenty years before this will was written, Ezekiel Collins, for the sum of 26 pounds, 13 shillings and four, paid him by his brother Mark, "with what my honored father William Collins hath given me by deeds of land," gives up all claims on estate "both real and personal and all sorts of utensils both in and out of doors."

Children:

7. i. Ezekiel⁵, b. May 1, 1749. (Fitzwilliam, N. H., Branch.)
20. ii. Mark, b. Oct. 12, 1751. (Southborough Branch.)

5. MARK⁴ COLLINS [*Ezekiel*³, *Joseph*², *Henry*¹] died August 20, 1803, æ. 74. He was born about 1729. We have already stated that it would seem that he was the son of Ezekiel³ and Rebekah, as the home place is deeded to him and the agreement is stated in the deed that Ezekiel and Rebekah shall have the privilege of remaining there during their lives. As Ezekiel came from Lynn to Southborough in 1733, Mark was probably born in Lynn. He married July 8, 1756, Hepzibeth Hardy. They were married in Grafton.

Children:

- i. Sarah⁵, b. June 24, 1757.
- ii. Benjamin, b. Aug. 29, 1759; m. Nov. 28, 1782, Rebecca Morse.
- iii. Mary, b. May 2, 1765.
- iv. Hepzibah, b. Jan. 2, 1768; m. Feb. 17, 1788, Josiah Fay.

FITZWILLIAM, NEW HAMPSHIRE, BRANCH FIFTH GENERATION

7. EZEKIEL⁵ COLLINS (*William*⁴, *Ezekiel*³, *Joseph*², *Henry*¹) was born in Southborough May 1, 1749. He married first, Abigail Woods; she died May 24, 1776. He married second, Anna ———, who survived him and married second (int. January 23, 1813), Lieut. Nathan Bartlett of Royalston. She died in Royalston August 1, 1817. He died February 8, 1808, in Fitzwilliam, N. H.

REVOLUTIONARY RECORD

Ezekiel Collins of Southborough is enrolled as a sergeant in Capt. Elijah Bellows' company, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775; service five days. It is also recorded that he enlisted in Capt. Seth Newton's company, in Colonel Whitney's regiment of cavalry, August 21, 1777; he was discharged August 26, 1777; service six days on an alarm at Bennington. Rations were allowed him on the march from Southborough to Hadley.

In March, 1795, he removed, with his family, to Fitzwilliam, N. H., and settled near the pond which is still called by the family name.

In 1888 a history of Fitzwilliam was published, and it contains a genealogical record of the Collins family. The book is copyrighted, but by permission of the Joel Whittemore estate we use the record,* making additions and amendments.
